

Emergency Type	Description	General Hospital Capability Required	Representative Bengaluru Hospitals
Type A (Basic)	Eye Injury, Fever, Headache, Minor Injury, Nosebleed	Any clinic or hospital with outpatient/casualty dept.	Virtually all hospitals.
Type B (BLS)	Abdominal Pain, Animal Bite, Fall, Laceration, Mental Health Crisis	Hospital with a 24/7 Emergency Room (ER).	Most hospitals, including mid-sized ones. For Mental Health Crisis, NIMHANS is the specialty center.
Type C (ALS)	Allergic Reaction, Breathing Problems, Chest Pain, Cardiac Arrest, Stroke, Seizure	Multi-specialty hospital with ALS-equipped ER and specialists.	Manipal, Fortis, Apollo, Narayana Health, Victoria, St. John's, Aster CMI.
Type D (ICU)	Major Trauma, Sepsis, Industrial Accident, Electrocution	Major hospital with specialized ICUs and trauma teams.	Manipal, Fortis, Apollo, Narayana Health, Sakra, Victoria Hospital Trauma Centre, St. John's.
Type E (Neonatal)	Maternity/Childbirth	Hospital with Labour/Delivery suites and Neonatal ICU (NICU).	Cloudnine, Motherhood, and all major multi-specialty hospitals listed above.
Type F (Disaster)	Mass Casualty Incident	Large designated hospitals with disaster plans.	Major Govt. hospitals (Victoria, Bowring) and large private hospitals (Narayana, Manipal, Fortis).
Fire Engine	Fire, Flood, Gas Leak, Structural Collapse	Victims require Trauma & Burns units (Type C/D capability).	Victoria Hospital (Burns Ward), St. John's, Manipal, Fortis.